

COUNCIL REFUSES TO ALLOW NEWS COMPANY PRIVILEGES

Will Not Grant Permission to Violate Borough Ordinance.

WILL BEGIN MAKING FILL

Street Committee Hindered from Pursuing Work by Weather Conditions.

The Union News company controlled, it is stated, by the Pennsylvania Railroad company will have to get something other than a frame building if it wishes to start a business in Charleroi. Sunday a frame structure was brought overland from McDonald and unceremoniously dumped on the railroad property at the corner of McKean avenue and Fifth street. This morning council got together in a "hurry up" session and took action to the effect that the pre-ent structure would have to be removed and that if the Union News company, the Pennsylvania railroad, or any other corporation wished to establish a news bureau on the spot selected they would have to get something that would not burn down too easily. This portion of the borough is within the fire limits and to grant the News company the right to place the building there would be to violate an ordinance.

At the meeting this morning Clerk Ira L. Nickeson reported that a note had been prepared by the treasurer, R. H. Rush, to relieve the borough of a shortage, the amount being $3,000. The matter of the fill for the Maple Creek bridge was discussed, and Chairman Frew of the street committee stated that the committee had instructed the street commissioner to begin as soon as possible work on the fill.

WORRY OVER LOSSES CAUSES INSANE ACT

With the suicide of James Stream Tripp, a well known farmer at his home near Waynesburg another name has been added to the already long list of victims of the failure of the Farmers and Drovers National bank of Waynesburg, which closed its doors on December 12, 1906.

Mr. Tripp, who was a former resident of Greene county, took his life in the cellar of his home by shooting himself through the head with a 22 calibre rifle. He left no note in reference to his awful deed but it has been known for some time that he had been brooding over his losses occasioned by the failure of the bank.

Page Woven Wire to Extend Plant

Will Supply Its Own Billets if Present Plans Materialize.

It is stated that the Page Woven Wire company at Monessen has extensive improvements to its plant under consideration. The company is planning to supply its own billets, which will mean the erection of an open hearth furnace plant. If the plans materialize they will mean an important acquisition to Monessen's industries.

CHURCH IN GOOD SHAPE

Report Made of Past Year's Work by St. Jerome's Officials.

At St. Jerome's Catholic church Sunday, a financial statement was distributed, which shows that the church has had a prosperous year. The total income including a loan of $1,500 was $11,473.81 and the expense $11,201.15, leaving a balance of $272.66. The year 1909 opened with a church debt of $6,094.60, which, in addition to the $1,500 loan, made the total indebtedness $7,594.60. During the year, however, $6,594.60 was paid off, leaving the debt at the close of the year only $1,000.

The ordinary sources of income during the year, which are the door, Sunday, monthly and children's mass collections, brought in $4,997.45. The diocesan collection, for missionary and other funds were $151.53; special collections, which included Christmas, evenings and holy week, $858.01; entertainments, $2,464.88; societies, $46.18. Other sources of income, which includes the $1,500 loan, cemetery and miscellaneous receipts, amounted to $2,955.75.

The expenditures were $324.33 for house, $370.54 for church, $251.53 for diocesan, $555.77 for cost of entertainments, and $9,698.93 for other expenses. This latter item includes indebtedness paid, pastor's and assistant's salaries, cemetery and repair payments, interest, choir, Christmas treat and other small sundries. There were 27 deaths in the congregation during the year, 8 marriages and 65 baptisms.

Rev. W. D. Fries, the pastor, and his assistant, Rev. J. A. Conner, have worked hard and faithfully during the year, and in conjunction with the trustees have made a most creditable showing.

To Protect the Public.

The members of the State Constabulary stationed in this county wish to correct an impression which a number of citizens, especially farmers have, that they are in the employ of the coal companies. They wish to state that they are placed there for the protection of the public and not any single person or corporation.

RESIGNS PASTORATE HERE TO ACCEPT CALL FROM ARMSTRONG COUNTY CHURCH

Rev. J. H. Palmer Announces His Intention of Leaving on or before the First of March.

Rev. J. H. Palmer, the pastor of the First Baptist church, has announced his intention of leaving Charleroi on or about March 1, to accept a call of the Leechburg Baptist church and has notified his congregation of his forthcoming departure. The church will hold its regular business meeting on Wednesday evening of this week, and in all probability at this time take action as to when they will let Rev. Palmer go.

Rev. Palmer has had calls to two churches, but the Leechburg call was considered the better, and he has notified them of his acceptance. He was recommended for the place by Rev. H. C. Gleiss, the corresponding secretary of the Pittsburg Baptist Association. The church is a somewhat larger one than the church here, and has more members. It pays a larger salary.

Rev. Palmer has been in Charleroi for about three years, and during that time has made many friends who will be sorry to see him leave. He is the second pastor of a Charleroi church to resign within the past few weeks. Rev. H. C. Boblitt, pastor of the First Christian church, having announced his intention of quitting his position last month.

BUSINESS MAN IS MAKING CANVASS

George Moody, Prominent Meat Dealer, Candidate for Council.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the announcement of Geo. W. Moody for the Republican nomination for councilman at the primary election to be held Saturday. Mr. Moody, who is one of Charleroi's successful business men, is a resident of the third precinct. He has been engaged in the meat business for several years and has lately added an ice manufacturing and cold storage plant, which is now in successful operation.

As a citizen Mr. Moody has been active in public affairs and has taken a lively interest in everything pertaining to the development and advancement of Charleroi. His energy and activity in this respect, as well as his successful business career and sound judgement in practical matters, is what prompted his friends to urge his candidacy for the nomination for council. They believe that his presence on the councilmanic board will be in the interests of the public, and his probity and well known business integrity are ample guarantees of good service. It is on these qualifications that Mr. Moody's friends appeal for support at the primary. 12711

FUNERAL OF GEORGE INGLAND ON SUNDAY

The funeral of George Ingham, who died at the Monessen-Charleroi hospital Friday afternoon from injuries received at Lock No. 4, took place Sunday from the home of John Garwood in West Brownsville. Rev. Charles R. Harmon of the Central Presbyterian church, Brownsville officiated. Superintendent A. F. McGowan of Lock No. 4, Assistant Superintendent G. W. Paxton, Mort Crabb, William Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Price were among those who attended the funeral from Charleroi.

PROMINENT GREENE COUNTY MAN DIES

Harvey Biddle, aged, 81 years is dead at his home in Carmichaels. Pneumonia was the cause. His death occurred Saturday night. Mr. Biddle was prominent in affairs of Greene county and was a trustee of Waynesburg college. He was a member of the old Central Presbyterian church of Washington now the Presbyterian church. His wife and six children survive: Newton, William, Mrs. Thomas Patterson, Rev. R. L. Biddle of Donora, Dr. J. P. Biddle of Washington and Mrs. Russel Hanna.

Committee is Named.

At a meeting held yesterday afternoon of the executive committee of the Federated Adult Bible Classes of the First Washington county district, Dr. H. J. Repman, Prof. James G. Pentz and Joseph Kenyon were named as a committee to draw up a constitution and by laws.

William F. Schempp and son Karl were in Pittsburg yesterday for a visit with friends.

MARIANNA RESTAURANT KEEPER IS ARRESTED

Charged with Selling Liquor Illegally—State Constabulary on Job.

The troopers belonging to the detachment of State police located at West Zollarsville on Saturday arrested Howard Tomica, proprietor of a restaurant in Marianna on the charge of violating the liquor laws. The arrest was made by Troopers Kane and Dillon.

RUNAWAY TEAM THROWS DRIVER FROM HIS SLED

In a runaway on McKean avenue here Saturday afternoon a sled belonged to John Nelson, of Fallowfield township was somewhat damaged, and Earl Nelson, who was driving the team injured slightly by being thrown from the sled. The horses started near Sixth street and ran to Fourth where they were headed off by Officer George McDowd. One of the animals turned to the sidewalk while the other one turned in the opposite direction, with the result that they hung up at a telephone pole. Nelson was thrown from the sled after the horses had run some distance.

NEW BRIDGE WILL BE ERECTED BY COUNTIES

At the joint meeting of the Washington and Greene county commissioners held at Waynesburg last week it was decided to erect a bridge over Wheeling creek between West Finley township, this county, and Richhill township, Greene county. Controller John H. Moffitt and Engineer George Chaney were also at the joint meeting.

Bids will be received and opened by the Washington county controller on February 23 in the controller's office at Washington. It is proposed to erect a steel truss bridge, with concrete or stone abutments. The bridge will have a span of 100 feet. The bridge is on what is known as the Graysville, Majorsville and Elm Grove creek road, a much traveled thoroughfare.

TOO MUCH DYNAMITE TO SUIT PASSENGERS

Foreigner Carries Explosive and Caps Too Carelessly for Comfort.

Two foreigners were arrested on a street car at Monongahela when it was discovered that they were carrying a large quantity of dynamite and caps in handy bundles. As an explosion in the crowded car was not a thing to be desired the foreigners were hastily but carefully hustled to the city bastille where they were held for a hearing before Alderman Elwood. Pending this hearing the explosive was placed in the alderman's office.

Miss Nelle Jones was in Pittsburg Sunday to visit friends.

He was arrested Saturday night late while peeping around, and it was thought trying to break into a house on the hill. The burgess fined him $4.85.

PLAN SCHOOL FOR SUMMER

California May Adopt Innovation for Benefit of the Teachers.

A movement is on foot for the establishment of a summer school at California Normal, for the benefit of teachers and students throughout Western Pennsylvania. The matter has not been brought to a focus yet, but in all probability will be taken up by the school authorities in the near future, as the idea seems practicable.

The indications are that a summer school at California would be largely patronized from the very beginning. The Normal has all the facilities for such an enterprise, and there is no place in the State where teachers and students could find better living accommodations.

HATS BARRED FOR FEMININE PORTION

Some of Washington Congregation Want to See the Preacher Occasionally.

The elaborate millinery conceptions worn by the members of the fair sex at the services in the First Presbyterian church of Washington, have reached such enormous proportions that adherents of the church during the past week waited upon the pastor and asked that some step be taken to enable them to occasionally get a glimpse of the speaker during the sermon. In pursuance of this request the pastor, Rev. W. E. Slemmons, yesterday morning submitted the question to the ladies.

It is expected that next Sunday morning will see the inauguration of the innovation in the Washington First Presbyterian church, and witness a hatless condition of the feminine portion of the congregation.

Miss Agnes Stevenson of Uniontown returned home last evening after a brief visit in Charleroi with Misses Lulu and Roberta Trew.

Found by Son-in-Law Sunday Morning When He Went to Visit Him.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE FROZEN

Indications Point to Fact That Weather Conditions Were Responsible for Man's Death.

The body of Charles Greenwood was found in an old shanty not far from Donora yesterday morning, by his son-in-law, Charles Wagner, the man supposedly having been frozen to death. He was well up in years. The body was taken to the home of a relative in Webster.

Greenwood and a son had been "batching" at the shanty, having come from their home in West Newton to be employed in the Black Diamond mines. The son was away Saturday night, it is stated, and it is supposed that the man left alone and not feeling well had fallen to sleep without banking the fire and was gradually frozen to death.

Wagner went to the hut to see his father-in-law yesterday morning, not in the least expecting to find him dead or dying. The place was dark and cold, he noticed, when he entered. He looked at the bed, and there noticed Greenwood, apparently sleeping. He went to arouse him, when he discovered that the man was dead.

People nearby were notified as soon as possible. It was needless to call a physician, and the body was taken to Webster. Coroner Heffran will investigate. Foul play has been suggested, inasmuch as the night was not more than ordinarily cold.

SAYS SENSATIONALISM IS WHAT WE CRAVE FOR

Pastor Likens Mad Rush of Nowadays to Entertainment of Herodism.

The revival meetings for two weeks in progress at the M. E. church came to an end last night. Rev. Doak, the pastor, has been conducting the services.

Last night he preached on the theme of "What is Your Attitude Toward God?" He spoke of the things that interest us most, and likened the present day mania for sensationalism to Herodism. He said that even three-fourths of the members of a church would not turn out to hear the preaching of the Gospel, but let something sensational occur and the people would flock to the scene in droves.

Belongs to the States.

The protest of State Auditor General R. K. Young against the Federal Government tax on corporations, is founded on reason, considered from the standpoint of a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This source of taxation, Mr. Young says, rightfully belongs to the States, and if it is invaded by the Federal government, it must inevitably result in direct personal taxation for State purposes.

As the leading centre of industry, Pennsylvania is also the centre of corporate organizations. By taxing their capital stock for State purposes personal taxation is reduced to a minimum, but as public expenses have a tendency to increase faster than the income from present sources of taxation new sources must at times be sought. There has been a growing sentiment that the rate of corporation tax should be increased, which, naturally, has been opposed by the corporations. Now, along comes the Federal government and imposes a tax on net earnings of corporations, with the result that when the State must have more revenue the increased tax will have to be imposed more directly on the people. Auditor General Young's protest is well founded, but it comes too late to be of any benefit to the Commonwealth.

Style and Accessories.

In the various investigations as to the cause of the abnormal cost of living, which has caused the American people to sit up and take notice, the truth is being gradually sifted out. While the unalterable law of supply and demand cuts the most prominent figure, there are other causes entirely within the province of individuals to correct. These are the unnecessary luxuries which custom has gradually decreed, and which constitute more than half of the expenditures that are now consuming and running ahead of individual incomes.

It is the style and accessories that cost. Groceries, bread, meat, and farm produce are abnormally high, but at least half their cost is due to "style and accessories." Where people used to carry their own groceries home, they now have everything delivered, and the cost of the delivery wagon, horse and driver is added to the groceries. When persons travel it costs them from two to five dollars a day or more for what they eat, while at home it costs them but a few cents a day. It is not the food that costs, but the "style and accessories."

In everyday life new and unheard of expenses are now considered a part of the necessities of life. The spirit of organization instituted by the trusts has invaded private life, until nearly every man and woman and even the children have clubs and associations that must be maintained by a regular outlay of cash. Public charities, subscriptions, donations and other demands are becoming more insistent every day. Add to this the frenzied effort to keep up in the matter of fashion in attire and social customs, and it will be found that the expenditures for "style and accessories" have far outrun those for necessities. Unless incomes can be adjusted to this outgo, individual pride will have to be universally curbed before there is any relief from the present situation.

COUNCIL REFUSES TO ALLOW NEWS COMPANY PRIVILEGES

Will Not Grant Permission to Violate Borough Ordinance.

WILL BEGIN MAKING FILL

The Union News company controlled, it is stated, by the Pennsylvania Railroad company will have to get something other than a frame building if it wishes to start a business in Charleroi. Sunday a frame structure was brought overland from McDonald and unceremoniously dumped on the railroad property at the corner of McKean avenue and Fifth street. This morning council got together in a "hurry up" session and took action to the effect that the present structure would have to be removed and that if the Union News company, the Pennsylvania railroad, or any other corporation wished to establish a news bureau on the spot selected they would have to get something that would not burn down too easily. This portion of the borough is within the fire limits and to grant the News company the right to place the building there would be to violate an ordinance.

At the meeting this morning Clerk Ira L. Nickeson reported that a note had been prepared by the treasurer, R. H. Rush, to relieve the borough of a shortage, the amount being $3,000. The matter of the fill for the Maple Creek bridge was discussed, and Chairman Frew of the street committee stated that the committee had instructed the street commissioner to begin as soon as possible work on the fill.

WORRY OVER LOSSES CAUSES INSANE ACT

With the suicide of James Stream Tripp, a well known farmer at his home near Waynesburg another name has been added to the already long list of victims of the failure of the Farmers and Drivers National bank of Waynesburg, which closed its doors on December 12, 1906.

Mr. Tripp, who was a former resident of Greene county, took his life in the cellar of his home by shooting himself through the head with a 22 calibre rifle. He left no note in reference to his awful deed but it has been known for sometime that he had been brooding over his losses occasioned by the failure of the bank.

CHURCH IN GOOD SHAPE

Report Made of Past Year's Work by St. Jerome's Officials.

At St. Jerome's Catholic church Sunday, a financial statement was distributed, which shows that the church has had a prosperous year. The total income including a loan of $1,500 was $11,473.81 and the expense $11,201.15, leaving a balance of $272.66. The year 1909 opened with a church debt of $6,094.60, which, in addition to the $1,500 loan, made the total indebtedness $7,594.60. During the year, however, $6,594.60 was paid off, leaving the debt at the close of the year only $1,000.

The ordinary sources of income during the year, which are the door, Sunday, monthly and children's mass collections, brought in $4,997.45. The diocesan collections for missionary and other funds were $151.53; special collections, which included Christmas, evenings and holy week, $858.01; entertainments, $2,464.88; societies, $46.18. Other sources of income, which includes the $1,500 loan, cemetery and miscellaneous receipts, amounted to $2,955.75.

The expenditures were $324.38 for house, $870.54 for church, $251.58 for diocesan, $555.77 for cost of entertainments, and $9,698.98 for other expenses. This latter item includes indebtedness paid, pastor's and assistant's salaries, cemetery and repair payments, interest, choir, Christmas treat and other small sundries. There were 27 deaths in the congregation during the year, 8 marriages and 65 baptisms.

Rev. W. D. Fries, the pastor, and his assistant, Rev. J. A. Conner, have worked hard and faithfully during the year, and in conjunction with the trustees have made a most creditable showing.

To Protect the Public.

The members of the State Constabulary stationed in this county wish to correct an impression which a number of citizens, especially farmers have, that they are in the employ of the coal companies. They wish to state that they are placed there for the protection of the public and not any single person or corporation.

RESIGNS PASTORATE HERE TO ACCEPT CALL FROM ARMSTRONG COUNTY CHURCH

Rev. J. H. Palmer Announces His Intention of Leaving on or before the First of March.

Rev. J. H. Palmer, the pastor of the First Baptist church, has announced his intention of leaving Charleroi on or about March 1, to accept a call of the Leechburg Baptist church and has notified his congregation of his forthcoming departure. The church will hold its regular business meeting on Wednesday evening of this week, and in all probability at this time take action as to when they will let Rev. Palmer go.

Rev. Palmer has had calls to two churches, but the Leechburg call was considered the better, and he has notified them of his acceptance. He was recommended for the place by Rev. H. C. Gleiss, the corresponding secretary of the Pittsburgh Baptist Association. The church is a somewhat larger one than the church here, and has more members. It pays a larger salary.

Rev. Palmer has been in Charleroi for about three years, and during that time has made many friends who will be sorry to see him leave. He is the second pastor of a Charleroi church to resign within the past few weeks, Rev. H. C. Boblitt, pastor of the First Christian church, having announced his intention of quitting his position last month.

BUSINESS MAN IS MAKING CANVASS

George Moody, Prominent Meat Dealer, Candidate for Council.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the announcement of Geo. W. Moody for the Republican nomination for councilman at the primary election to be held Saturday. Mr. Moody, who is one of Charleroi's successful business men, is a resident of the third precinct. He has been engaged in the meat business for several years and has lately added an ice manufacturing and cold storage plant, which is now in successful operation.

As a citizen Mr. Moody has been active in public affairs and has taken a lively interest in everything pertaining to the development and advancement of Charleroi. His energy and activity in this respect, as well as his successful business career and sound judgment in practical matters, is what prompted his friends to urge his candidacy for the nomination for council. They believe that his presence on the councilmanic board will be in the interests of the public, and his probity and well known business integrity are ample guarantees of good service. It is on these qualifications that Mr. Moody's friends appeal for support at the primary. 12711

The funeral of George Ingham, who died at the Monessen-Charleroi hospital Friday afternoon from injuries received at Lock No. 4, took place Sunday from the home of John Garwood in West Brownsville. Rev. Charles R. Harmon of the Central Presbyterian church, Brownsville officiated. Superintendent A. F. McGowan of Lock No. 4, Assistant Superintendent G. W. Paxton, Mort Crabb, William Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Price were among those who attended the funeral from Charleroi.

PROMINENT GREENE COUNTY MAN DIES

Harvey Biddle, aged, 81 years is dead at his home in Carmichaels. Pneumonia was the cause. His death occurred Saturday night. Mr. Biddle was prominent in affairs of Greene county and was a trustee of Waynesburg college. He was a member of the old Central Presbyterian church of Washington now the Presbyterian church. His wife and six children survive: Newton, William, Mrs. Thomas Patterson, Rev. R. L. Biddle of Donora, Dr. J. P. Biddle of Washington and Mrs. Russell Hanna.

Charged with Selling Liquor Illegally—State Constabulary on Job.

The troopers belonging to the detachment of State police located at West Zoltersville on Saturday arrested Howard Tomica, proprietor of a restaurant in Marianna on the charge of violating the liquor laws. The arrest was made by Troopers Kane and Dillon.

RUNAWAY TEAM THROWS DRIVER FROM HIS SLED

In a runaway on McKean avenue here Saturday afternoon a sled belonged to John Nelson, of Fallowfield township was somewhat damaged, and Earl Nelson, who was driving the team injured slightly by being thrown from the sled. The horses started near Sixth street and ran to Fourth where they were headed off by Officer George McDowd. One of the animals turned to the sidewalk while the other one turned in the opposite direction, with the result that they hung up at a telephone pole. Nelson was thrown from the sled after the horses had run some distance.

NEW BRIDGE WILL BE ERECTED BY COUNTIES

At the joint meeting of the Washington and Greene county commissioners held at Waynesburg last week it was decided to erect a bridge over Wheeling creek between West Finley township, this county, and Richhill township, Greene county. Controller John H. Moffitt and Engineer George Chaney were also at the joint meeting. Bids will be received and opened by the Washington county controller on February 23 in the controller's office at Washington. It is proposed to erect a steel truss bridge, with concrete or stone abutments. The bridge will have a span of 100 feet. The bridge is on what is known as the Graysville, Majorsville and Elm Grove creek road, a much traveled thoroughfare.

Pending this hearing the explosive was placed in the alderman's office.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE FROZEN

indications Point to Fact That Weather Conditions Were Responsible for Man's Death.

The body of Charles Greenwood was found in an old shanty not far from Donora yesterday morning, by his son-in-law, Charles Wagner, the man supposedly having been frozen to death. He was well up in years. The body was taken to the home of a relative in Webster.

Greenwood and a son had been "batching" at the shanty, having come from their home in West Newton to be employed in the Black Diamond mines. The son was away Saturday night, it is stated, and it is supposed that the man left alone and not feeling well had fallen to sleep without banking the fire and was gradually frozen to death.

Wagner went to the hut to see his father-in-law yesterday morning, not in the least expecting to find him dead or dying. The place was dark and cold, he noticed, when he entered. He looked at the bed, and there noticed Greenwood, apparently sleeping. He went to arouse him, when he discovered that the man was dead.

People nearby were notified as soon as possible. It was needless to call a physician, and the body was taken to Webster. Coroner Heffran will in all probability have charge and investigate. Foul play has been suggested, inasmuch as the night was not more than ordinarily cold.

SAYS SENSATIONALISM IS WHAT WE CRAVE FOR

Pastor Likens Mad Rush of Nowadays to Entertainment of Herodism.

The revival meetings for two weeks in progress at the M. E. church came to an end last night. Rev. Doak, the pastor, has been conducting the services. Last night he preached on the theme of "What is Your Attitude Toward God?" He spoke of the things that interest us most, and likened the present day mania for sensationalism to Herodism. He said that even three-fourths of the members of a church would not turn out to hear the preaching of the Gospel, but let something sensational occur and the people would flock to the scene in droves.

Belongs to the States.

The protest of State Auditor General R. K. Young against the Federal Government tax on corporations, is founded on reason, considered from the standpoint of a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This source of taxation, Mr. Young says, rightfully belongs to the States, and if it is invaded by the Federal government, it must inevitably result in direct personal taxation for State purposes.

As the leading centre of industry, Pennsylvania is also the centre of corporate organizations. By taxing their capital stock for State purposes personal taxation is reduced to a minimum, but as public expenses have a tendency to increase faster than the income from present sources of taxation new sources must at times be sought. There has been a growing sentiment that the rate of corporation tax should be increased, which, naturally, has been opposed by the corporations. Now, along comes the Federal government and imposes a tax on net earnings of corporations, with the result that when the State must have more revenue the increased tax will have to be imposed more directly on the people. Auditor General Young's protest is well founded, but it comes too late to be of any benefit to the Commonwealth.

Style and Accessories.

In the various investigations as to the cause of the abnormal cost of living, which has caused the American people to sit up and take notice, the truth is being gradually sifted out. While the unalterable law of supply and demand cuts the most prominent figure, there are other causes entirely within the province of individuals to correct. These are the unnecessary luxuries which custom has gradually decreed, and which constitute more than half of the expenditures that are now consuming and running ahead of individual incomes.

It is the style and accessories that cost. Groceries, bread, meat, and farm produce are abnormally high, but at least half their cost is due to "style and accessories." Where people used to carry their own groceries home, they now have everything delivered, and the cost of the delivery wagon, horse and driver is added to the groceries. When persons travel it costs them from two to five dollars a day or more for what they eat, while at home it costs them but a few cents a day. It is not the food that costs, but the "style and accessories."

In everyday life new and unheard of expenses are now considered a part of the necessities of life. The spirit of organization instituted by the trusts has invaded private life, until nearly every man and woman and even the children have clubs and associations that must be maintained by a regular outlay of cash. Public charities, subscriptions, donations and other demands are becoming more insistent every day. Add to this the frenzied effort to keep up in the matter of fashion in attire and social customs, and it will be found that the expenditures for "style and accessories" have far outrun those for necessities. Unless incomes can be adjusted to this outgo, individual pride will have to be universally curbed before there is any relief from the present situation.
